RELIGIOUS FREEDOM
IN THE UNITED STATES

Above: French artist Gabriel Loire's Glory Window in the ceiling of architect Philip Johnson's Chapel of Thanksgiving, an interfaith chapel in Dallas, Texas

"Every person may here worship God according to the dictates of his own heart."

—George Washington | First U.S. president, 1789–97

United States Department of State | Bureau of International Information Programs
Image: Carol M. Highsmith | Library of Congress