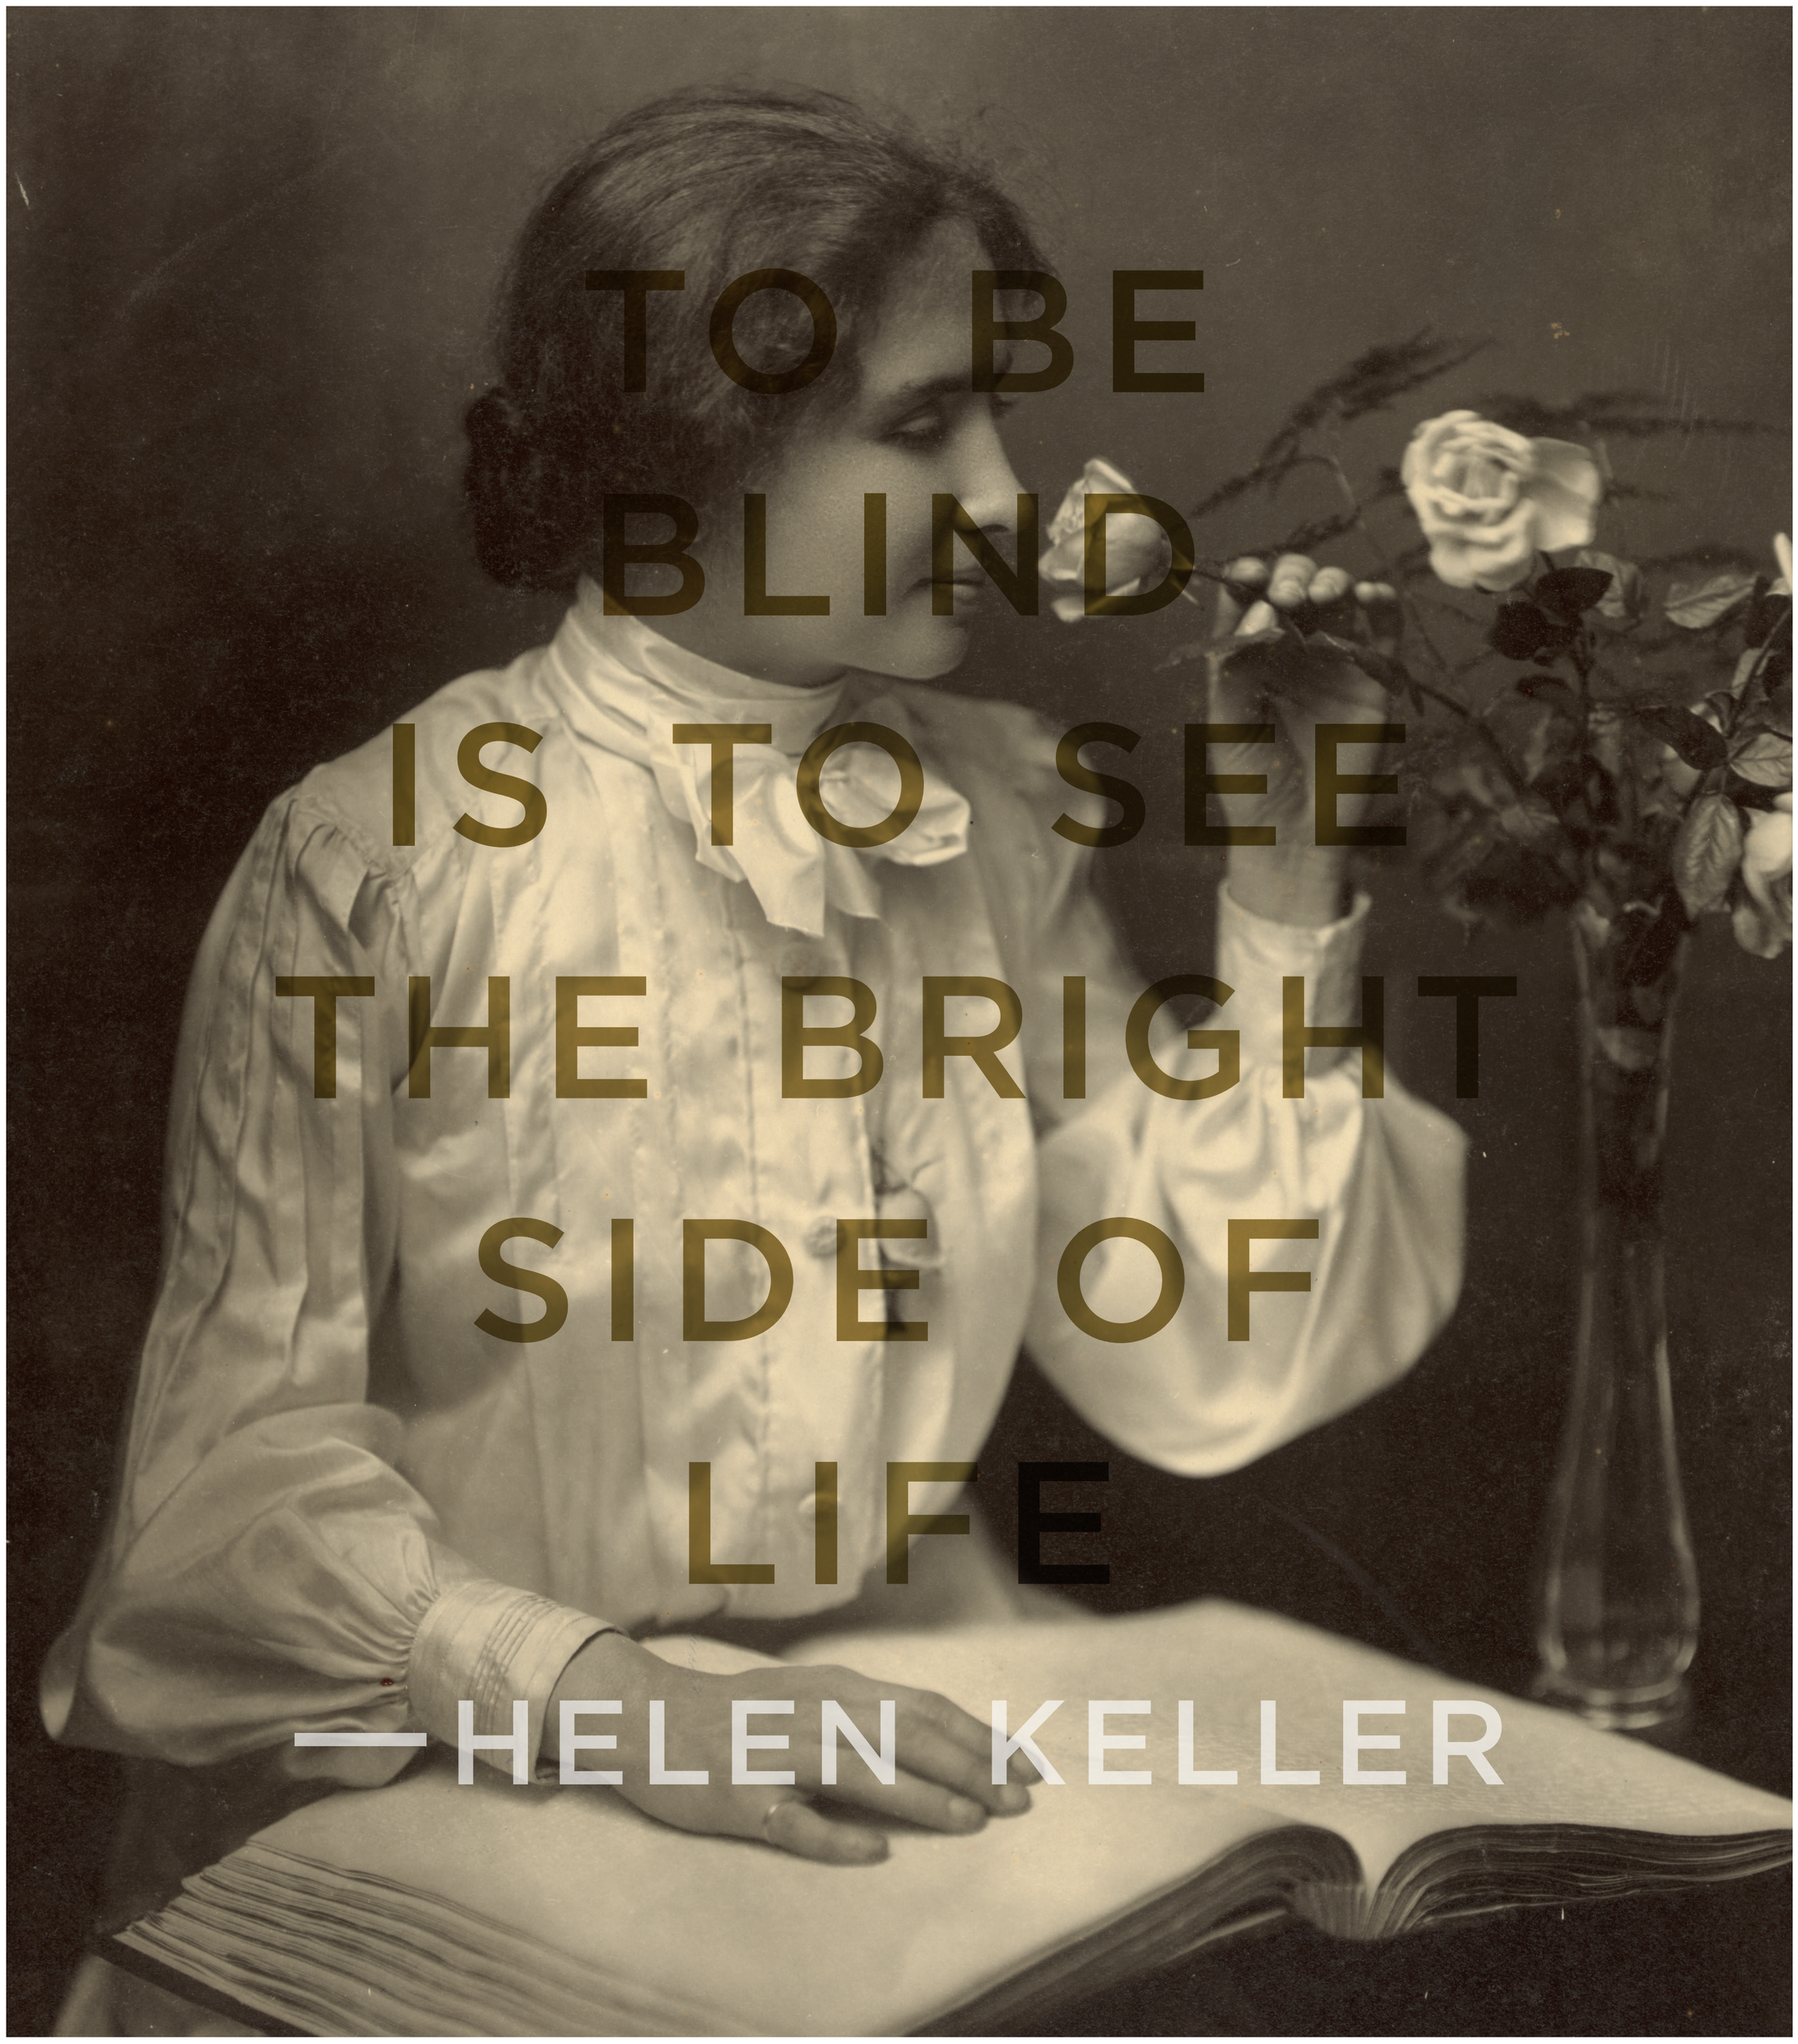
DisAbility

EMPOWERING PEOPLE WITH DISABILITIES EMPOWERS EVERYONE

ACCESSIBLE TRANSPORTATION + BARRIER-FREE ARCHITECTURE + EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITIES

USEFUL ASSISTIVE DEVICES + EQUAL MEDICAL CARE BENEFITS + LATEST MOBILE TECHNOLOGY



HELEN KELLER, deaf and blind from early childhood, continues to inspire today, half a century after her death. She worked tirelessly for educational access and equal rights for all.

WORLDWIDE

1 out of 7 PEOPLE

HAVE DISABILITIES

"We can all do more. Facilities should be fully accessible. Hiring practices should expand training opportunities and ensure our citizens have the knowledge and skills to compete and succeed in the 21st Century."

—Michael R. Pompeo
Secretary of State

U.S. Department of State | Bureau of International Information Programs | Office of Editorial Content
Image: Library of Congress / Whitman Studio / ca. 1904 / Helen Keller, No. 8.

ShareAmerica_International Day of Persons with Disabilities 2018_English.indd 1
11/27/18 12:10 PM